Support: CBB / LTSB Comparison

Windows 10 IoT Enterprise is the successor to Windows Embedded. Windows 10 IoT Enterprise works on x86 platforms (32- and 64-bit) and has the almost full functionality of the consumer version of Windows 10. For the industry in addition, Microsoft has extended and integrated the lockdown features known from its predecessors. Lockdown features include shell launcher, write filter, USB filter, input filter and app locker. These are used to protect embedded systems against manipulation and power interruptions to back up.
Concerning features and update policy there are 2 different versions:

CBB (Current Branch for Business)
In the Current Branch for Business release, the updates are applied four months later than Current Branch. Accordingly, any bugs or security holes in the current branch update have already been eliminated. The functionality of the CBB version is similar to the consumer version.

LTSB (Long Term Servicing Branch)
In the Long Term Servicing Branch (LTSB) version, new versions are released as updates only every two to three years. Compared to the consumer or CBB version, some apps are missing (see data sheet).
Concerning licensing there are 3 different variants that are based on the CPU of the underlying PC Embedded system:
